SESSIONS.

There is but one Session in the Seminary year. The year commences on Wednesday after the third Monday in September, and ends on the second Thursday in May.

ADMISSION.

The regular time for admission to the Seminary is in September. It is of the utmost importance for all students to be present at the commencement of the Session.

The Seminary is open to students of every evangelical denomination. Candidates for admission must furnish the Faculty with satisfactory testimonials of being in full communion with some Christian Church, and of having been regularly educated at some College or University; or, in the absence of such testimonials, they must satisfy the Faculty, by examination, that they are qualified to enter on a course in Theology. Such persons, on assenting to the Constitution of the Seminary, are admitted to the standing for which they are qualified.

On entering the Seminary, students are required to subscribe to the following declaration: "Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence and piety, preparatory to the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in reliance on Divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend to all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and vigilantly observe all the rules and regulations specified in the Constitution, and also obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors of the Seminary, while I shall continue a member of it."

THE DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION.

I. ECCLESIASTICAL HISTORY AND CHURCH POLITY.

PROFESSOR TADLOCK.

JUNIOR CLASS.

Sacred History—From the Creation through the Apostolic Period.

This History is studied with reference to the Historic unfolding of the Redemptive Scheme, as marked in Covenant and Type. Attention is given to Ancient Geography, Archæology, and Chronology. Practical lessons are drawn from defections and revivals in the Ancient Church. In conducting the course, text-books and lectures are combined.

Text-books: First of all the Inspired Scriptures, Sacred History (Kurtz); Manual of Bible History (Blaikie). Books of Reference: Coleman's Historical Text-book and Atlas, Josephus, Milman, Stanley, Fairbairn, Edwards and Humphrey, together with Standard Dictionaries.

MIDDLE CLASS.

History of the Church.—From the Apostolic Period to the present time.

In pursuing this line of study reference is had to the History of Doctrine, of Church Polity, of Discipline and Worship. The effects of Church and State Alliance are noted. In conducting the studies of the class, text-books are used, accompanied by free comment and lectures on special topics.

Text-books: Alexander and Fisher. Books of Reference: Mosheim, Neander, Gieseler, Schaff, Hetherington and D'Aubigne.

SENIOR CLASS.

History of Presbyterianism.—A brief survey of the sources of the elements forming the organization of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, followed by the history of the same, using Gillett as a text-book. This is followed by a course in Church Polity.

Text-books: "History of the Presbyterian Church"—Gillett. "The Church of Christ"—Witherow. "The Book of Church Order." Books of Reference; Cunningham, Thornwell, Hodge, Gillespie and Robinson.

II. OLD TESTAMENT LITERATURE AND EXEGESIS.

PROFESSOR MCPHEETERS.

General Statement.

The work in this department will be directed to the attainment of the following ends, viz: First: The thorough mastery of the principles of Hebrew Etymology and Syntax, as furnishing the only basis for proficiency in Exegesis. Second: The acquisition of a copious vocabulary. Third; The formation and cultivation of exegetical habits of mind, the acquiring of sound principles of interpretation, and of a knowledge of the several branches of Exegesis. Fourth: The securing of such familiarity with special introduction as will give the student an intelligent idea of the historical occasion, design and general contents of the particular books of Scripture, and so prepare the way for intelligent Exegisis.

JUNIOR CLASS.

The aim with this class will be to secure the mastery of the more common and necessary principles of Hebrew Etymology, of so much of the Syntax as relates to the verb, and, in addition to this, to acquire a good working vocabulary. They will use for this purpose Harper's Hebrew Method and Manual, Elements of Hebrew, and Elements of Hebrew Syntax, and will be expected to read rapidly a considerable part of Genesis.

MIDDLE CLASS.

The class this year will study Exodus. During the greater part of the session they will be engaged with a close, critical examination of Chapters I–VI. The object here will be drill in the application of the principles of interpretation, special emphasis being laid upon the principles of grammatical, historical and logical interpretation. During the latter part of the session, if possible, the class will be carried over the remainder of the book in a more rapid manner. In this the object will be the illustration of the principles of Exegesis as they are related to more extended contexts.

Senior Class.

The attention of the class this year will be engaged with the study of Messianic Prophecy. They will read with care selected Messianic Prophecies. This will be followed by a connected view of Messianic Prophecy as a whole.

There will be occasional lectures on special themes. This class, and the Middle Class also, will be expected to prepare two critical papers upon subjects assigned them by the Professor.

General and Special Introduction.

This class will embrace students in the Middle and Senior years. Its methods will be shaped with a view to meeting the needs of such as are taking only an English course, as well as of those who are taking Hebrew. The topics handled will vary from session to session. The aim will be to cover the field of General Introduction, and, as far as possible, that of Special Introduction every two years. Instruction by lecture and text-book.

III. NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE AND EXEGESIS.

Professor Brimm.

The aim of the entire course is to lead the student into the habit of careful, comprehensive, independent study and interpretation of the New Testament. Constant attention is given to Word-study, Synonyms, Phraseology and Peculiarities of Individual Writers, points of Historical Interpretation, careful Logical Analysis, and the Inductive Study of different Parts of Syntax, to determine the difference between Classical Greek and the New Testament Idiom, Hebraisms, &c., the effort being to make the study of the New Testament practical, and not merely theoretical.

Junior Class.

This class studies the Gospel Harmony, with purpose, in addition to above, of getting a succinct view of Life of Christ; harmonizing apparent discrepancies; securing copious vocabulary, and acquiring habit of careful and accurate translation. General Exegesis of Words of Christ, and study of Christic Theology. At the beginning of the session the class is occupied with the subjects of General Introduction to the New Testament: The Development of the Idiom, Canon, Textual Criticism, Hermeneutics, and History of the New Testament, and Special Introduction to the Gospels.

Text-books: Robinson's Harmony, Thayer's Lexicon, Grammar. Students should bring and use their classical Lexicons and Grammars also. Introduction is taught by lecture.

Middle Class.

This class studies the Exegesis and Introduction of the Catholic Epistles, as many as is practicable, with Theology of the Jewish teachers.

Text-books: Thayer, Winer, Westcott & Hort's Greek Testament, Revised Version, Lectures on Introduction to Catholic Epistles.

Senior Class.

This class will study for minute Exegesis the Doctrinal portion of Romans or Galatians, and for broader Exegesis the shorter Pauline Epistles, with Introduction to the Books studied, the Life and Character and Literary Characteristics of Paul. Studies in Pauline Theology and its Harmony with that of Christ and of the Jewish teachers. Independent original work is encouraged.

Text-books as before. Lectures on Introduction to the Pauline Epistles.

N. B. It is extremely important for students to be present on first day of session, since the first few days determine and base the work of the entire session.

IV. DIDACTIC AND POLEMIC THEOLOGY.

Professor Hall.

The study of Systematic Theology is begun in the Junior Year, and prosecuted through the Middle and Senior Years.

Junior Class.

The Junior Class is occupied once a week with Introductory Theology, embracing the Definition of Theology and the Method of its Distribution, the Relation of Theology to Philosophy and Science, the Source of Theology or the Rule of Faith and Duty, and the Inspiration of the Scriptures. The text-book used is the first volume of Hodge's Systematic Theology.

Middle Class.

The Middle Class studies the Theology of Natural Religion, comprising the following topics: The Being of God, Man's Natural Ignorance of God, our Knowledge of God, the Names of God, the Nature and Attributes of God, the Trinity, the Decrees, Creation, Providence, Angels, Man, the Will of Man in Innocence, Moral Government, the Covenant of Works and the Principle of Federal Representation, the Fall, Original Sin, including a full discussion of the theories touching Hereditary Sin, the State and Nature of Sin, the Pollution and Guilt of Sin, and the Degrees of Guilt.

Senior Class.

The Senior Class studies the Theology of Redemption, consisting of the following topics: Election and Reprobation, Appointment of the Mediator and Federal Head, the Covenant of Grace, Qualifications of the Mediator, the Person of Christ, the Mediatorial Offices, the Mediatorial Estates, Vocation, Grace, Regeneration, Faith, Justification, Repentance, Adoption, Sanctification, the Moral Law, Prayer, the Last Things, embracing Death, the State of the Soul after Death, the Second Advent, the Resurrection of the Dead, the Final Judgment, Glorification, Future Punishment, including the consideration of Annihilationism, Future Probationism, and Universalism.

The text-books of the Middle and Senior Classes are the first volume of Thornwell's Collected Writings, and the three volumes of Hodge's Systematic Theology. Along with the study of text-books, lectures, written and unwritten, are freely employed. The students are required to submit, at all meetings of the classes, digested statements in writing of what had been gone over in preceding exercises. Constant reference is made to the Westminster Standards.

V. "NATURAL SCIENCE IN CONNECTION WITH REVELATION, AND CHRISTIAN APOLOGETICS."

Professor Laws.

"Nothing can be more obvious than that Christianity must be so understood as to square with the certainties of all known Truth, or be rejected altogether" (Thomas Chalmers). Provided a communication, come whence it may, be not self-contradictory, nor contradictory of self-evident and established truths, reason is incompetent, before examination, to prejudge its content, and must look to the evidence. "Physical science rests on verified or uncontradicted hypotheses" (Huxley),* and it is deemed absurd to prejudge and oppose without investigation any hypothesis that, so far as we know, may be true. Every Bible doctrine which appeals to man's faith is the equivalent of an hypothesis which seeks verification within the sphere of his intelligence and religious consciousness. "Prove all things; hold fast that which is good." "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God."

Junior Class.

The Canon: Stuart "On the Old Testament," Wescott "On the Canon of the New Testament," J. A. Alexander's "New Testament Literature."

The Evidences: A. Alexander, Paley, Chalmers. Assyriology.

* "The Advance of Science in the last half-century," p. 33.

The Apostles' Creed: other creeds and the Apologetic import of the six Œcumenical Councils (A. D. 325, 381, 431, 451, 553, 680).

Lectures on all these subjects.

MIDDLE CLASS.

Christian Ethics, as distinguished from Deistic and also from Humanitarian or Atheistic Ethics.

Butler's Analogy and Buchanan's Modern Atheism.

Logic: Its latest statement and impartial ministry in formally unifying and harmonizing all knowledge derived from Natural and Supernatural Sources—its utility in Christian Apologetics.

Lectures.

SENIOR CLASS.

Theistic Realism—the Rational Consummation of the Natural Sciences of Matter and of Mind and of Philosophy; with the aid of a printed but unpublished Treatise containing a critical epitome of the leading systems of Philosophy. (Copies are lent the students for class use.)

Psychology: Scientific and Biblical.

Comparative Religion.

The Religions of the World, by Burrell. The literature of the subject is fully excerpted and special attention is given to the underlying philosophy of each religion, and also to the points of Missionary interest.

A review of the "World's Parliament of Religion," 1893, the result of a personal attendance thereon.

The work of Missions is a feature kept steadily in view.

Résumé of entire course with the help of Syllabi—rei summa capita.

VI. PASTORAL THEOLOGY, SACRED RHETORIC AND ENGLISH BIBLE.

PROFESSORS TADLOCK, MCPHEETERS, BRIMM, AND HALL.

1. Pastoral Theology.

SENIOR CLASS.

The usual subjects embraced in this Department are discussed in a course of Lectures by the Professor of Didactic and Polemic Theology.

Text-book: Baxter's Reformed Pastor.

2. Sacred Rhetoric.

Junior Class.

Text-book: Broadus' Preparation and Delivery of Sermons. Reference is made to Vinet, Dabney, and others. To this is added Drill in Reading. The selections are made chiefly from the Bible and Hymn Book, with Criticism by the instructor.

Middle Class.

Text-book: Broadus (as above); and reference is made to Bautain's Art of Extempore Speaking. Masterpieces of the Pulpit. Written Exercises are required for Criticism by the Teacher.

Senior Class.

The Composition of Sermons is required for Criticism by the Teacher during this year.

During the latter part of the year the Sacraments are taught.

The subjects of this part of the Chair are taught by the Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity.

3. English Bible.

A special course of instruction in the Exegetical and Homiletical Study of the English Bible is given for all the classes. This course is arranged specially for the benefit of such students as may not have had the advantage of a full course of instruction in the languages before entering the Seminary. But all the students are required to avail themselves of the benefit of this course. Due care will be taken that this work in the English Bible shall not be regarded as a substitute for the regular work in Greek and Hebrew, nor be allowed to trench upon it. Sections of both Old and New Testaments, and such subjects in Biblical Literature as do not require a knowledge of Greek and Hebrew, are studied in this class.

By the Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis a course is given in Old Testament Introduction.

By the Professor of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, the study of Life and Writings of Paul.

ELOCUTION.

PROFESSOR LAWS.

There is a special fund, the proceeds of which are used to provide for instruction in Elocution by a proficient teacher. Lectures, with drill in voice culture, expression, and gesture, and exercises in reading, are pursued under the instructor in this department.

EXAMINATIONS.

At the close of each session, oral and written examinations are held upon all the subjects studied during the year. The written examinations are submitted to the Board for its inspection, and transmitted to the Presbyteries; and the oral examinations are held in the presence of the Board and of the Synodical examiners. "No member of the Seminary shall be absent from the examination of his class; and, in case of the absence of any student, he shall be examined by the Faculty at the commencement of the next term; and if his examination be not satisfactory, he shall be required to make up the deficiency, otherwise he may not proceed with the class."—Constitution.

On a scale of 100, 70 is the minimum required in each subject to pass from a lower to a higher class, also for graduation.

REPORTS TO PRESBYTERIES.

Reports are sent semi-annually to Presbyteries of the attendance of the students under their care upon the exercises of the Seminary, and of their general deportment, diligence and standing in study.

RHETORICAL EXERCISES.

In addition to the regular instruction in Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution, exercises in Oratory and Debate are held under the direction of the Faculty.

Once a fortnight, original discourses of about fifteen minutes in length are delivered in the presence of the Faculty and students. Criticism is invited from all present, the purpose of which is to remove blemishes of matter, manner, and style. Usually three students speak at each meeting.

Once a fortnight, also, a debate upon some subject chosen by the students is held, the aim of which is to cultivate thoughtfulness, and also freedom and readiness of speech, in the students. The Faculty is represented by the officer of the week, who presides, and, should it be necessary, corrects errors in the arguments and views advanced.

MISSIONARY DAY.

The first Wednesday of each month is devoted entirely to Missions. The usual Seminary exercises being suspended, the Faculty and the students meet together for the discussion of some chosen topic, or topics, of Home and Foreign Missions. The members of the Faculty preside at these exercises in the order of seniority, and at each meeting papers are read by three students, in addition to the address by the leader and the free conference by all. The exercises are conducted on a digested and prearranged Program.

Historic Memorandum.

"The missionary feelings of John Leighton Wilson and James L. Merrick, since missionaries in Africa and Persia, led to the formation, at the very beginning, of the Society of Inquiry on Missions, which was organized in the Library Room of the Seminary on the evening of the 7th of February, 1831, and has exerted a great and salutary influence on the Seminary and the church in Columbia ever since."—Memorial Vol., p. 143.

"The Society of Inquiry on Missions" holds two meetings monthly, and is very useful in creating interest in foreign missions, and in gathering information touching the history and present condition of this work.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

HISTORICAL.

The Seminary was founded in 1829 by the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia. Classes were first organized in 1831, with Dr. Goulding and Dr. Howe as professors. In 1833 Dr. Leland became connected with the Seminary, but Dr. Goulding died in 1834, so that only two professors remained to conduct the classes. For several years no additions were made to the staff, yet many efficient ministers were educated during that period. In 1860 there were five able professors, of whom Dr. Thornwell was one, and fifty students in the Institution. From 1866 to the present time the work of the Seminary has been carried on with various changes and some interruptions. There are now five regular professors, tutors in Biblical Literature and a teacher of Elocution. The resources of the Seminary are fairly good, but not by any means adequate. Additional endowments, a new Chapel, a fire-proof Library building, and a Refectory, are urgently needed to put the Seminary on secure footing and in a position to do the most effective work.

LOCATION.

The Seminary is situated in the city of Columbia, the capital of South Carolina, the seat of the State College and other educational and public institutions. "The South Carolina Presbyterian College for Women" occupies the entire square immediately north of the Seminary square. It is one of the most magnificent school properties in the South. The literary, musical and scientific courses are extensive and thorough. The Rev. R. P. Pell is the President and manager of this excellent school, and shares largely in the work of instruction. It is not uncommon for brothers and sisters to enjoy the benefits of these institutions at the same time.

Columbia has a population of about 20,000, is noted for the beauty of its site, its broad and well shaded streets, its quiet and refined society. The climate is deemed very favorable to those suffering from bronchial and pulmonary troubles. It is the centre of several railroads, and is easily accessible from every part of the United States.

BUILDINGS.

(Plate No. 1.)

These are neat and commodious, occupying a beautiful square of four acres near the centre of the city. The central building (No. 3) is used for the Library and for recitations. Law's Hall (No. 4) and Simons' Hall (No. 2), located right and left of the Central Hall (No. 3), or building, are planned especially for the comfort of the students. The rooms are large, well lighted, and ventilated. Recently they were all repainted and calcimined, and coal grates were put in many of the rooms. Each student is supplied with bedstead, bedding, towels, washstand, tables, chairs, and book shelves. During the past few years nearly all of the rooms have been entirely refurnished at an outlay of about forty-five dollars each. A complete suite of oak and ash furniture, consisting of a large single bed, a dressing bureau, a closed washstand, table and chairs, has been placed in each room. Each room has also had its floor neatly covered with a large carpet rug. This important improvement has been effected by special contributions made for the purpose, and it renders the students' quarters exceedingly comfortable. Accommodations are thus provided for about fifty students.

The chapel is the little low building (No. 1) to the extreme left: originally a stable, now converted into a sanctuary.

The Library and Class Rooms, as well as the students' rooms, have recently been repainted and thoroughly renovated, so that they are now inviting and comfortable.

LIBRARY.

The Library of the Seminary embraces—duplicates excluded—about twenty thousand volumes. The choice and extensive library of the Rev. Thomas Smyth, D. D., of Charleston, was added some years ago, and, more recently, large parts of the libraries of the Rev. John Douglass, Prof. George Howe, D. D., and S. Beach Jones, D. D. Besides this, the private libraries of the professors, a collection of several thousand volumes, are accessible to the students, and the use of the University Library is also extended, by courtesy, to the instructors of the Seminary—a collection of great value, amounting to more than twenty-five thousand volumes.

A library fund, which has been accumulating, now amounts to $10,000, part of the income of which is appropriated to the increase of the library. The opportunity thus exists for furnishing it, to a limited extent, with recent publications and current periodicals, American and European.

"The Society of Inquiry on Missions" possesses a valuable Cabinet, and its reading-room is supplied with books and a variety of religious newpapers.

A fire-proof building is greatly needed for the safety of the Seminary Libraries.

Donations to the Libraries of money and of books and of periodicals, especially such as have been published during the last quarter of a century, are solicited.

DONATIONS TO LIBRARY.

McPheeters, Hon. A. T. Smythe, Miss A. K. Irving, Miss S. A. Smythe, Rev. N. W. Edmunds, D. D. (War of the Rebellion—100 volumes, with 33 maps and charts), Rev. W. G. Neville. HEBREW PRIZES.

A prize is offered to that member of the Junior Class who attains the highest stand for the entire session. This prize consists of $25 worth of books, selected by the Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis. It is provided by the generosity of Mr. Thos. S. McPheeters of St. Louis, Mo.

To stimulate summer study, another prize is offered to that member of the Middle and Senior Class who reads the largest amount of Hebrew during vacation time. The prize this year consisted of the first volume of McCurdy's Prophecy, History and The Monuments.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

Daily prayers, which every student is required to attend, are conducted in the morning by a member of the Senior Class, and in the afternoon by one of the Professors.

Wednesday afternoon is occupied by the Professors in a Conference before the students upon personal piety, the best plan and method of study, and kindred topics; the students taking part in the devotional exercises.

On Saturday evening a devotional service is held by the students.

Opportunities for various kinds of Christian work are afforded, and practical training can thereby be secured by the students. Care is taken that this shall not interfere with regular study.

EXPENSES.

No charge is made for Room-rent, Tuition, or use of Library, nor are there fees of any kind.

A Boarding Hall in connection with the Institution is kept up, which gives suitable board for about $10 per calendar month. The matron, Mrs. Maggie Saunders Ferguson of Rocking Mount, Va., has charge of the Hall, and of the linen and furniture of the students' rooms. The Seminary provides the buildings, kitchen utensils, table ware, etc. Donations in money or supplies for the use of the Hall will be gladly received. Several churches and friends sent in useful gifts during this session.

The following contributions of provisions were made to the Seminary mess from October 1, 1866, to February 1, 1867, for which helpful favors grateful thanks are hereby returned: Hopewell Congregation, five boxes; Bethesda Congregation, five boxes; Camden Congregation, two boxes; Ebenezer Congregation, one box; Rev. J. G. Hall, one box.

Washing can be had at $1.25 per month. Books are purchased at about cost, by a special arrangement which the Seminary makes; and many of the text-books can be obtained from the Library.

Traveling expenses of students, upon first entering the Seminary, are paid when necessary; and further assistance is given to students from scholarships, and from a fund called the Students' Fund, so far as it will allow. This Students' Fund offers a most attractive opportunity of usefulness to persons of ample means, who are desirous of efficiently aiding in raising up an increasing number of well trained ministers for the Church. Many of our leading educational institutions have ample funds for the aid of worthy students, some of them expending as much as fifty thousand dollars annually in this way. The army and navy are maintained on the government scholarships in Annapolis and West Point of $545 a year each.

Plate No. 2 (opposite page) is a picture of the beautiful and inexpensive new Dining Hall which the ladies have undertaken to build. The architect has (without charge) drawn for them this plan covering all the points. It would be most gratifying to have this structure displace the wretched and rickety old shanty now in use. The health and tone of the students are in no small measure bound up in this enterprise, as numbers can testify from personal experience. This provision for the physical man is all-important.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION.

An Association of the Alumni of the Seminary has been formed, with the purpose of preserving and strengthening the ties of fellowship, and advancing theological study. The officers elected at the last meeting were: J. L. Girardeau, D. D., LL. D., President; Thos. H. Law, D. D., Secretary; and Wm. E. Boggs, D. D., Treasurer.

SEMINARY CHAPEL, MAY 14, 1896, 9 A. M.

The Association was opened with prayer by the President. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved. The paper of Dr. Bean, which was under consideration when the Association adjourned last evening, was taken up, amended and adopted as follows:

WHEREAS, The Alumni Association of Columbia Theological Seminary, in session at Columbia, May 13, 1896, has had brought to its attention the present condition and needs of our beloved Alma Mater, and

WHEREAS, We are convinced that the prosperity and usefulness of Columbia Theological Seminary may be furthered by the constant and intelligent care of its Alumni:

Resolved, 1st. That we express our warm interest in the welfare of this institution, and our gratitude to God for the good it has already accomplished.

2d. That we urge all the Alumni to do all in their power to advance the interests of the Seminary, believing its existence and successful operation to be a chief factor in the conserving and aggressive work of the associated controlling Synods.

3d. That a permanent Committee be appointed, representing each Synod, to consult with the Professors and with the Board, in order to bring all necessary matters before the Alumni, and, on the other hand, to suggest desirable changes to the Board of Directors.

4th. That it be recommended that the members of this committee call for such meetings of the Alumni, each for his own Synod, as in his judgment may seem best.

The following Committee was appointed: W. J. McKay, J. B. Mack, W. H. Dodge and L. S. Handley.

☞ The graduates of the past few years are requested to write the Faculty their fields of labor, licensure, ordination, installation, marriage, &c.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

The Seminary is incorporated by the Legislature of South Carolina, under its original name, and the proper form of a bequest would be as follows:

"To the Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia, to them and their successors, I give and bequeath the sum of ————, (or I devise a certain parcel or tract of land, etc.,) to be applied by them to the uses and benefit of said Seminary."

Testators will do well to have respect to the laws of the State in which they reside. The State of South Carolina requires that a last Will and Testament be signed by the testator in the presence of three witnesses.

N. B.—The Next Term will begin on Wednesday, September 22d, 1897.

THE CHARTER.

An Act to extend the Charter of "The Board of Directors of the Theological Seminary of the Synod of South Carolina and Georgia," to change the name of the Incorporated body and better define and limit the powers thereof.

Approved the ninth day of March, A. D., 1896.

SEMINARY ALUMNI.

We desire to prepare a general catalogue of the Alumni, and give this list preparatory. Where only one date is given, this is the year of graduation, and it is understood that three years were taken in this Seminary. We would like for all named here to send us all facts about themselves suitable for a general Catalogue, such as: Year of birth, what literary Institution attended, Degrees, years of attendance, other seminaries attended previously or subsequently, period when here if not correct in this list, what Presbytery a candidate of, when and by what Presbytery licensed, and ordained, what churches served and dates, and whether pastor or stated supply in each case, other church work (teaching, editorial, evangelistic, central committees, &c.), any books or pamphlets author of.

In case of those who are deceased, will not some friend who knows the facts volunteer to give them to us? Address D. J. Brimm, 1302 Pickens street, Columbia, S. C.
